

First US Tours

A look at each band's first headlining jaunt around the United States.

The 1975

The 1975's first headlining stint in the United States started with a nine-show showcase at South By Southwest festival, continuing later through New England.

March 2013

Catfish and the Bottlemen

Catfish's first headlining stint had focus on both New England—New York City, in particular—and deep in the Midwest.

June 2014

Blossoms

In contrast to the 1975 and Catfish's emphasis on New England and New York, Blossoms' first headlining tour took place in the West, mostly in California.

April 2017